Dear Kathryn,

Here are your questions and my response in blue text:

For the Hacco rodenticide products, I was wondering if any of you have readily available the answers to the following questions:

--How many of Hacco's registrations were amended to conform to the RMD requirements?

See this chart previously sent on 4-13. It lists all currently registered products, including

1. one product \(61282-7\) that Hacco has recently requested voluntary cancellation \(marked under "Status" as "Vol can", Rus Wasem has the request\),
2. ones NOT subject to the RMD \(highlighted in red and marked under "Status" as "n/a"\),
3. ones subject to the RMD for which RD has approved a label, marked under "Status" as "Yes", and
4. ones subject to the RMD for which RD has such products marked under "Status" as "under review" \(highlighted in yellow\).

--Of these amendments, were any accepted with comments? If so, what were the comments?

For each product marked in the above chart under the "Status" as "Yes", check PPLS under the registration number in the above chart for this information.

--Did Hacco cancel any of their registrations and seek new registrations that conformed to the RMD? If so, which ones?

Rus Wasem could tell you which Hacco products a\) have been cancelled or b\) will be cancelled in the future.

Subject: Rodenticide Hacco Question.

Good morning,

For the Hacco rodenticide products, I was wondering if any of you have readily available the answers to the following questions:

- How many of Hacco's registrations were amended to conform to the RMD requirements?
- Of these amendments, were any accepted with comments? If so, what were the comments?
- Did Hacco cancel any of their registrations and seek new registrations that conformed to the RMD? If so, which ones?

PRD is currently working on a response to Hacco's letter which expressed they may no longer comply with the RMD; and we want to be as specific in our response letter as possible.

Thank you again for all of your help on this!
